Non-Custodial Parent Access:
 Legal guardians have a right to be involved in all significant matters affecting their child’s upbringing, unless those rights have been overruled by a court order. In saying this, the welfare of the child is the most important consideration, and all decisions made by the school will reflect this.

It is important that if protection or court orders exist for your child, that copies are provided to the school upon enrolment. Feel free to make an appointment with the Principal or Deputy Principal if you wish to discuss the circumstances.
